Where we share your personal data with someone who is a supplier or service provider, we have taken steps to ensure that they treat your personal data in a way that meets the requirements of the GDPR.

Your rights to your personal data

You have rights relating to the personal data that we collect and use. Depending on the legal basis we are using the information you have different rights. If we are using your personal data based on your consent, you can withdraw that consent and we will stop using that personal data. Withdrawing your consent will need to be recorded in writing, please contact the Data Protection Team.

The right to be informed:

If you ask us, we must tell you if we are collecting or using your personal data.

If we are collecting or using your personal data, you have:

The right of access to your personal data

You have the right to view the personal data that we hold about you, to receive a copy of the data and to be given more information about the data including any transfer to countries who do not fall under the requirements of the GDPR.

Some information we hold cannot be accessed in this way. If you ask for information that is not available, there may be other ways of accessing it and we can help you.

To have access to your personal data we will need to collect details of what you want and in the first instance you can contact the Data Protection Team whose details can be found at the end of this Privacy Notice. You will also need to supply us with standard information to verify your identity if required.

Other rights

You also have rights to ask us to correct inaccurate personal data, to ask us to stop using it or to object to us using it. For some data you may have the right to ask us to erase it, or to provide it in an electronic format that you can give to someone else. If your personal data is subjected to an automated process to get a decision, then you have the right to object to this too.

You can be given full details of these rights if you request them from the Data Protection Team or you can ask the Data Protection Officer.
